A Reference Grammar of Dutch is aimed at English-speaking students of Dutch at beginner/intermediate level. It is designed to be practical and user-friendly: grammatical information is presented in short entries arranged in alphabetical order, allowing students to gain easy access to specific points of grammar or problematic points of vocabulary as they encounter them in practice. Each grammatical rule is illustrated by simple, everyday Dutch examples of the kind likely to be encountered and used by the learner. Specialised linguistic terminology is kept to a minimum, with a glossary of essential terms provided, and charts and tables are included to help the student focus on the main points. Each entry is linked to a set of exercises which are graded according to complexity, and there is a key to the exercises at the back of the book. A thorough index is also provided. With 1855-1927 are issued and bound: Handelingen van de algemeene vergadering. Ideological heterogeneity in mass plays in Flanders and the Netherlands In many European countries mass theatre was a widespread expression of 'community art' which became increasingly popular shortly before the First World War. From Max Reinhardt's lavish open-air spectacles to socialist workers' Laienspiel (lay theatre), theatre visionaries focused on ever larger groups for entertainment as well as political agitation. Despite wide research on the Soviet and German cases, examples from the Low Countries have hardly been examined. However, mass plays in Flanders and the Netherlands had a distinctive character, displaying an ideological heterogeneity not seen elsewhere. Mass Theatre in Interwar Europe studies this peculiar phenomenon of the Low Countries in its European context and sheds light on the broader framework of mass movements in the interwar period. Drawing on Etty Hillesum's writings, this book offers a comprehensive account of international scholarship on the life, works and vision of the Dutch Jewish writer Etty Hillesum, whose life was shaped by the totalitarian Nazi-regime, and who lived a courageous spirituality in the darkest period of the twentieth century. A story from Suriname as told and recorded gives an insight in the lives of David and Erna Robinson. David and Erna Robinson are the parents of nine biological children. These two remarkable people have been caregivers to many Youth of Suriname. They have treated and raised all as their own, with love, respect, and discipline. Now the young men and women have become successful members of society. See the accomplishments and contributions by Mr. and Mrs. Robinson to society. The hard work they have subjected themselves to be productive members of Suriname. Their way of life is a story worth to tell, an example to success in life. God was never out of the equation in their lives. They glorified God with their lives, by trying to live a life pleasing to Him. They tried to live life at high standards, by serving God. The story is about authority, respect, discipline, morale, morals, compassion, and love. The bible says that when it comes to Jesus, we are to stand out, we are not to be just here to blend in. Therefore, we are to keep our behavior excellent. Our lives as Christians is to be honest truthful people. Our lives as Christians is to bring glory to God. Our lives as Christians is to start everyday with Jesus and to continually keep glorifying God with our lives. First Published in 1991. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company. Stiefmoeder zijn betekent vooral: heel veel vragen beantwoorden. `Hoe is dat dan? en `Is dat niet lastig? en `Voel je verschil met je eigen kind? en (altijd!) `Hoe is het contact met de echte moeder? Het zijn ook de vragen die mensen altijd stellen als ze horen dat Daniëlle de Groene stiefmoeder is. En altijd geeft Daniëlle een eerlijk antwoord: ze had geen idee waar ze aan begon toen ze stiefmoeder werd, en vertelt daar met smaak over. In The Netherlands, the arts have gained a sacralized status, while religion is increasingly viewed through the lens of heritage. The dynamic resonance of sacred forms this results in, is exemplary for the postsecular. Exploring this resonance, this book offers a strong counterweight to the popular trope of the arts having replaced religion in secularized societies. Instead it approaches artistic performance, religion, and its heritage as mutually engaging sacred forms. Lieke Wijnia thoroughly connects theoretical perspectives on the sacred with ethnographic research at the annual festival Musica Sacra Maastricht. She explores the continued relevance of a broad conceptual approach to the sacred, as well as the practical side to negotiating the sacred at the festival. The resulting analyses shed new light on topics like musical performance as generator of the sacred, how art and heritage impact the continuity of religion in secularized societies, and the fragility of artistic performance in the contemporary fragmented framework of the sacred. This book offers an innovative and interdisciplinary interpretation of the continuing significant role of art and religion in postsecular societies. This volume (the 14th of a series of 19) contains 21 letters written between August 1701 and March 1704. At least half of these letters were addressed to Fellows of the Royal Society in London. Every volume in the series contains the texts in the original Dutch and an English translation. The great range of subjects studied by Van Leeuwenhoek is reflected in these letters: instruments to measure water; pulmonary diseases; experiments relating to the solution of gold and silver; salt crystals and grains of sand; botanical work, such as duckweed and germination of orange pips; descriptions on protozoa; blood; spermatozoa; and health and hygiene, for example and harmfulness of tea and coffee and the benefits of cleaning teeth.; Volumes One to 13 are available at a reduced price from Swets and Zeitlinger.
